

“

Typically, this has involved helping large companies make the transition to open source but we've also worked with companies on what we call "inner sourcing" -- that is, helping them to use open source development techniques within the corporation, or with a cluster of key customers -- even if they aren't ready to take the step all the way to releasing their software as a public open source project.

Tim O'Reilly (2000)

InnerSource

“ é o uso das melhores práticas de desenvolvimento e o estabelecimento de uma cultura semelhante ao OpenSource dentro das organizações para o desenvolvimento de software de código não aberto e/ou proprietário.”

Alan Braz (2022)

Vantagens

- + Qualidade, Colaboração, Reuso
 - Gargálos, Silos, Frustração
- = Inovação!
- = Atração de novas gerações

Desafios

- Ferramentas - GitHub, GitLab...
- Automação - CI/CD, testes
- Transparência - descoberta, acesso
- Comunicação - documentação, feedback
- Vergonha - pressão social, qualidade
- Propriedade intelectual - especial
- Contrato com cliente
